

Julie Foudy and Iowa Rush Partnership

Iowa Rush Soccer Club is excited to announce their newest partnership with the Julie Foudy Sport Leadership Academy (JFSLA). The JFSLA is a five-night, six-day residential Academy for girls ages 12-18. The Academy focuses on two overlapping components – sports and leadership. The aim of the JFSLA is to expose students to Julie’s great passion: the concept of not being just a leader on the field but a leader in life.

Julie Foudy, the former USA Women’s Soccer Team Captain, two-time Olympic Gold Medalist and two-time World Cup Champion, successfully launched the Julie Foudy Sports Leadership Academy (the “JFSLA”) in the summer of 2006 along with her husband, Ian Sawyers, the former head coach of the WUSA San Jose Cyberrays and the 2001 WUSA coach of the year, and their good friends Kerri McClellan, Edson McClellan, and Todd Smith.

This summer’s camp dates and locations are:

June 28-July 3 (Sat-Thurs) in Oakbrook, Illinois

July 7-July 12 (Mon-Sat) in Hightstown, New Jersey

July 20-25 (Sun-Fri) in Atherton, California
