

Iowa Rush Soccer Club is excited to introduce two new members to our technical and office staff this spring.

Amanda Tucker has been named the Assistant Director of Coaching-Recreation in March and has since been working to get our Recreational players and teams prepared for spring season administratively. She will also be on the field coaching and working to develop our recreational players at rec professional sessions throughout the season. Tucker recently completed her playing career and graduated from Iowa State University, and worked with Iowa Rush Select teams this past fall. She is also married and the new owner of a four month old Golden Retriever named Bonnie. Amanda will work alongside current Director of Coaching-Recreation, Candice Fabry, this season and can be reached through the same email account, RecDOC@iowarush.com. Executive Director, Paul Fabry, stated, "We strongly believe in providing a quality recreational program to our membership and the community, and in order to do so, attracting quality staff members to assist our recreational players and families is essential. Her experience in the game and her joy in working with young players will continue to allow us to provide a top notch program. Amanda has shown great enthusiasm and a high quality of work since joining our team."

Meghan McCoy was recently named the Assistant Director of Coaching-Academy and will assist current Director, Daryl Brazeau, in the Academy administrative duties and on-field coaching. McCoy has been with the Iowa Rush for several years, as she came up through our player ranks in the Select program. Meghan recently completed her collegiate playing career and obtained her degree in Health Promotion, Wellness and Fitness Management from Grandview University. She is also currently the Director of 515 Kids at the local CrossFit. Paul Fabry commented, "Meghan has been a loyal Rush member for some time and we are pleased with her decision to join our professional staff. Her background and personality makes her a great fit with players, members and staff. We appreciate her continued support of the program here at Iowa Rush!" Meghan McCoy's email address is iarushmccoy12@hotmail.com.

The final staff adjustment to the Iowa Rush office staff is that current Director of Coaching-Recreation, Candice Fabry, will be acquiring the General Manager responsibilities and serving as the Interim General Manager. General club questions, including sponsorship and fundraising, can be directed to Candice at generalmanager@iowarush.com.

Please join us in welcoming our new staff members, and we look forward to seeing everyone at the fields!
